More Violence For Little Rock, Warns Faubus

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (UPI)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus has warned of new violence unless segregationists win Monday's school board recall election.

Faubus told a state-wide radio and television audience Friday night that if "integrationists" win, the city might again be the center of mob action like that which led to federal intervention in 1957.

He said the "results of Monday's election will prove inconclusive as to the ultimate results of this terrific struggle. . . . Whoever wins the victory will find that it will prove to be a victory only in the engagement of a continuing conflict."

He said no matter what the outcome, he would stand firm against any element trying to force integration on the people of Little Rock.

"I will resist such force with all my might, and it will pass only by trampling over my prostrate form," he said.

85 Meet, Map Opposition to DHS Cityhood

DESERT HOT SPRINGS—A total of about 85 persons met in Town Hall here last night in a first attempt to block incorporation of Desert Hot Springs.

The group, headed by Chairman R. H. McDonald, took no action because of the absence of the attorney who is scheduled to represent them.

However, McDonald said, action will be forthcoming—particularly in view of the opinion that Desert Hot Springs Chamber of Commerce is believed to be readying an application for incorporation petitions.

Other officers named are Cap Buol, co-chairman; Mrs. Nan Marsh, secretary, and Mrs. Cap Buol, treasurer.

Ike Relaxing At Gettysburg

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (UPI)—President Eisenhower planned another round of golf this morning during his leisurely weekend here.

An early round was planned after the President was advised of a forecast of possible thunderstorms later today.

ZADDIE'S FLIGHT TO BE PRESENTED ON 'NEWS OF DAY'

Metro Goldwyn Mayer's current News of the Day will present Palm Springs Flying Great-grandmother, Zaddie Bunker in her trip through the sound barrier, which was made on Armed Forces Day.

The Palm Springs Village Theater and Sun-Air Drive-In will play the News of the Day starting Sunday, and it will show Zaddie at the controls of a F-100 Super Sabre Jet in flight at 800 miles per hour over California.

Zaddie made the trip with Major Robinson Risner, a Korean jet ace, who commands the 308th Tactical Fighter Squadron at George Air Force Base.

MORE MEETS SET FOR MCL PROGRAM

An increase in the number of parent-teacher-administrator meetings for discussion of the "more capable learner" program in Nellie Coffman Junior High School has been indicated for the 1959-60 school year by Schools Supt. Dwight Twist.

The superintendent, responding to a request by a parent at Thursday's final spring conference, lauded the request and said he felt that "more of these sessions" would be valuable to the program.

THE "MORE capable learner" plan is completing the first year of a pilot program designed to test the suitability of isolating fast learners, medium learners and slow learners.

Prior to the question-answer phase of the meeting, Dr. Twist had detailed the MCL program from its inception to its present status. The program, assigned to the direction of Coffman Principal Warren Linville, involves six members of district personnel including:

—Harold Bentley, who teaches math and science to seventh and eighth grade students.

—MRS. NADINE BUELL, who teaches English and social studies to seventh graders.

U.S. 'Interference' In Starkweather Case Blasted

LINCOLN, Neb. (UPI)—The Nebraska attorney general today blasted "federal judicial interference" in the execution of the convicted murderer Charles Starkweather.

The official, Clarence S. Beck, sharply criticized an order by Federal District Judge Richard E. Robinson granting Starkweather, 30, a last-minute chance to appeal his condemnation to the electric chair.

Smile of Satisfaction

While a total of 12,708 Villagers and visitors were making the ticket-takers sweat at the door of the Palm Springs Playhouse during the recently-concluded, 14-week schedule at the theater, a woman standing slightly to one side of the front door was seen to smile—a smile of satisfaction.

A lot of people have been known to smile—mostly at the antics of such stars as Charles Winninger, Edward Everett Horton and the like—in the rounded stage of the Playhouse, but Mrs. John F. Luccareni wasn't watching a play.

Her gaze was directed, instead, at the result of four years of tenacious labor on the part of the Playhouse Guild which she founded.

IT WAS APRIL of 1953 and Herb Rogers had just finished detailing his plight to Mrs. Luccareni.

"He said," she recalled this week, "that he couldn't continue to lose money in the manner he had been losing it since 1949."

"He said he wanted to quit."

It was at that juncture that the Luccareni will and spirit came into

—John Mount, assistant principal at the junior high, who teaches math, English and social studies to seventh graders.

—Mrs. Marguerite Micelli, foreign language instructor, who teaches introductory Spanish to seventh graders, beginning Spanish to eighth graders.

—Mrs. Lucille McCarthy, a counselor, who teaches English and history to eighth graders.

—PRINCIPAL LINVILLE, who teaches two days weekly in reading speed and comprehension for seventh and eighth graders.

—James Milliron, chief counselor, who administers the testing for the program.

Linville told the assembled parents, teachers and administrators that two new classes, composed of this semester's sixth grade whizzes, will be introduced in September. An additional two classes, composed of this year's seventh graders, will also be utilized.

LINVILLE ALSO emphasized that the MCL program "has not and will not deter our interest" in slow learners or retarded pupils or in "the great majority of our students—the average learners."

Other questions—and their answers—at the session were:

Q—Where is the Palm Springs Unified School District obtaining its pattern for the program at Coffman?

A—FROM RESEARCH materials gained on county, state and national levels. The best of the information is kept, the rest discarded by the local program.

Q—Is the MCL program curtailing elective choices for students?

A—Under the seven period day at Coffman, the MCL program uses five of the periods, leaving two open for elective choices by the students.

The meeting was the final session on the MCL program until fall resumption of the program.

U.S. Reported Ready to Quit Geneva Meet

Soviet Stalling May Net Withdrawal Of U.S. Ministers

GENEVA. (UPI)—Russia threw another roadblock into the path of the Big Four Foreign Ministers Conference today, amid signs of mounting U. S. impatience and rumors the U. S. might break off the talks altogether unless progress on the German question is seen by next weekend.

The promise of new Soviet delaying tactics came in a dispatch from the Soviet news agency Tass while the ministers were in weekend recess.

TASS SAID SOVIET Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko would demand admission of Poland and Czechoslovakia to the conference as full participants in "the very next days."

Similar Russian demands were brusquely overruled by U. S. Secretary of State Christian Herter in the opening days of the conference.

IT FORESHADOWED MORE hours of time killing argument over procedural matters, in the face of Western demands that Russia now produce "concrete" proposals for German peace.

Officially, Western diplomats continued to hope that Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev might soon be ready to make enough of a concession here on Berlin to win the summit conference he wants.

GROMYKO MET WITH West German Foreign Minister Heinrich Von Brentano at the latter's villa in the afternoon.

It was the second private meeting between Gromyko and Von Brentano, and was held against a background of Khrushchev's implied threat that he would sign a separate peace treaty with Communist East Germany unless the foreign ministers here are able to reach agreement.

Weather

Desert area forecast: Mostly sunny today and Sunday but partly cloudy with a few scattered afternoon thundershowers over the mountains surrounding Owens Valley today. Little change in temperatures. High temperatures today 70 to 80 in upper valleys, 80 to 90 in lower valleys.

County Board To Have 10 Desert Items

Ten desert area items plus consideration of the preliminary budget for the fiscal year 1959-60 will be up for action by the Riverside County Board of Supervisors Monday.

Under planning matters, the board has four recommendations on desert items, an extension of time for filing map of Palm Springs Golf Club tract; an extension of time for filing map of El Dorado Palms; and the denial of a permit to O. F. Opperman for a quarry in the Desert Hot Springs area.

The Planning Commission has also filed an ordinance with the board relating to zoning in Cathedral City-Palm Desert district.

Supervisors will also consider a resolution ordering the sale of $650,000 bonds of the Coachella Valley, Joint Union High School District, and a proposed ordinance regulating the construction of buildings.

Under communications, the board will hear letters from both the Palm Springs and Thousand Palms Chambers of Commerce relating to lands adjacent to the Salton Sea.

Diplomas, Awards Given Ten Palm Valley School Grads

A 10-member senior class was graduated at Palm Valley School last night while a huge yellow moon lit the outdoor scene of the school's 1959 commencement.

The class included Begay Burnham, William Clause, Charles Keet Curran, Deborah Donovan, David Lasley, Michael Newman, Joy Rose, Wade Stelzer and Jean and Judy Stuart.

A COMMENCEMENT address was delivered by Donald Mitchell, chairman of the board of directors of the new College of the Desert here and for many years a trustee of the University of Redlands. Earlier, Rev. Frederick Barnhill, rector of the St. Paul's in the Desert Episcopal Church, had delivered the invocation.

Diplomas for the graduates—as well as for eighth grade graduates of the school—were presented by J. Blake Field, director of the school. Field also presented the awards, including:

Blood Bank Due Here Monday

Village area residents today were urged to be blood donors at the Riverside-San Bernardino two-county Blood Bank when it visits Desert Hospital from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m., Monday.

—Seventh grade map awards to Candy Crux and Ronnie Stuart. —Progress Award to Bobbie Meyers.

THE GRADUATES have all determined the colleges they will attend. Three—Miss Donovan and both of the Stuart girls—will attend Riverside City College. Miss Burnham will enroll at Stanford and Miss Rose at Arizona U. Clause will go to Orange Coast College, Curran to Los Angeles Valley JayCee, Lasley to Colorado U., Newman to Redlands U. and Stelzer to UCLA.

Eighth grade graduates included Briggs Bosworth, Judy Brown, Alice Crocker, Marge DeSantis, Susan Fleet, Nina Gluhareff, Emaline Hoffman, John Hornburg, Jeffrey Isenagie, Cathleen Malone, Katherine Mitchell, Andrea Neimerhoff and Paula Steinmetz.

For Mrs. Luccareni

"They're a beginning," said Mrs. Luccareni. "We've got ever so many things in planning stages."

MRS. LUCCARENI puts credit for the Playhouse comeback squarely with the still-growing membership of the Playhouse Guild. The members, who take memberships at the rate of $50 for sponsor, $100 for patron, $300 for benefactor and $500 for founder-benefactor, have aligned themselves solidly behind the Playhouse during the five years—and 84 plays—that have passed since the organization formed.

Now, like Mrs. Luccareni, the organization is pointing for its Jan. 8, 1960 "preview party" and a season that will see 14 plays, another performance by the Ballet Russe, perhaps an engagement by the L.A. Philharmonic and—Mrs. Luccareni winks slyly—maybe an added special event or two.

"We're eager," she said, "and we're determined. "We're going to make Palm Springs proud of this Guild."

If she hasn't already heard the news, the Village is already beaming with justifiable pride.

McCabe Hits Report as 'Erroneous'

Council Said Ready To Handle Any 'Pressure Groups'

Superior Judge Hilton McCabe today branded as "completely erroneous" a published report detailing the formation of a "vigilante" committee—with himself listed as a member—to watchdog governmental actions in Palm Springs.

A majority of City Council members, also reacting to the report, took a ho-hum attitude but declared that if the report were true the committee would be treated "exactly like any other pressure group."

McCABE EXPRESSED amazement at the report, which appeared this morning in a Riverside paper.

"I have nothing to do with any such vigilante committee," he declared. "We had a dinner at my house and some of us decided that it would be a good idea to try and plan future growth for Palm Springs. Most of the people there were interested so after we ate, we pushed our chairs back and talked about it."

"At no time was there any mention of influencing or pressuring the City Council here. I wouldn't be a party to a thing like that."

ANOTHER VILLAGE leader, also at the private dinner, said that it was "unfortunate" that the story had been told in the manner in which it was presented this morning.

Warren Slaughter, president of the Chamber of Commerce here, added that the story was "premature and presumptuous."

"It seemed to me," he said, "that someone found out that a dinner was held and then went ahead and speculated from that point."

OTHERS PRESENT AT the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bennett, Don McDermott, Francis Crocker, Tom Kieley, Al Hart, Sol Lesser, Ray Ryan, Earl Edris, Bill Smith, Irwin Shuman, Bill Edris, Herb Samson and Ben Shearer. Invited, but not present, were Ed McCoubrey, Ken Kirk, Jack Wrather, Lester Fella and Fred Ingram.

Slaughter said that the idea that had been presented was to map

U.S. Agents Nab Gun-Runners

MIAMI (UPI)—U. S. customs agents smashed a gun-running ring Friday that planned to ship a million dollars worth of weapons to the Caribbean for a counter revolution in Cuba.

The agents, doubling as undercover men in the best cloak-and-dagger tradition, arrested a Dominican Republic consul general, a shapely woman pilot, a policeman and 11 other persons after almost three months of work.

Eleven were arrested as they loaded 200,000 rounds of ammunition, 17 machine guns, 38 Garand rifles and parts for 20 carbines.

Killed by Committee

Brown to Review Dead Labor Bill

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—California Gov. Edmund G. (Pat) Brown, whose labor reform bill was killed by the Senate Labor Committee, said today that he may re-submit an altered version of the legislation to this session of the Legislature.

The bill, which outlaws jurisdictional strikes, has been under attack by both labor and anti-labor forces in the Legislature. Brown has consistently pointed to this factor in calling his proposals "middle-of-the-road."

IN OTHER ACTION, the governor:

Called for mandatory blood tests in accident cases as a result of a San Francisco area crash which took the lives of five nurses and a truck driver.

Charged in a talk before the California Taxpayers Association that opponents of his tax program are playing politics with the future of California.

SAID HE WAS "flatly opposed" to a cutoff date for his 256 million dollar tax program as proposed by a Senate committee.

Said his water program was in "excellent shape" despite numerous Senate amendments.

URGED A SPEEDUP of rapid transit planning to avoid "hopeless traffic congestion" ten years from now in large cities.

Signed a bill establishing a consumer council to speak for the people at government hearings.

In legislative action, the two houses:

THE JOINT LEGISLATIVE Tax Committee concluded a two-hour study with a recommendation that the tax program being considered by the Legislature be put into effect for two years only.

Sent to Gov. Brown a bill creating the Yuba County water agency.

In the Senate:

GOVERNOR BROWN'S cigarette and income tax bills zoomed to the Senate floor through a fast administration power play. Chairman James J. McBride (D-Ventura) had sent the 60 million dollar cigarette tax measure to a five-man committee for study and threatened to do the same with all tax bills.

Senator McBride (D-Ventura) hinted he would try to amend all of Brown's tax bills so they would expire June 30, 1961.

GOVERNMENT OPERATIONS committee cut nearly two million dollars from Brown's proposed tax program by trimming back his horse racing bill.

Senate Governmental Efficiency Committee killed Brown's bill to turn money from the fair and exposition fund over to the general fund.

Taxation Committee killed a bill to permit cities, counties and school districts to collect 20 million dollars from defense factories in taxes.

ELECTIONS COMMITTEE approved a ban against anonymous arguments on ballot propositions. Water Committee approved but greatly amended Brown's compromise program on water.

Finance approved a bill to regulate and license trading stamp companies.

Sen. John F. McCarthy (R-San Rafael) asked that the Senate kill his bill to regulate billboards along California highways.

In the Assembly:

ASKED CONGRESS to turn down the Eisenhower Administration's proposal for partnership development of Trinity River Project.

Approved a bill outlawing circulating initiative petitions for pay. Voted 34-30 to refer to committee a bill to halt sale of milk at lower prices in milk drive-in depots.

VOTED TO RECONSIDER approval of a 1963 world fair in Los Angeles.

Gave final approval and sent to the Senate for agreement in amendments a bill to outlaw cancer quacks.

Assemblyman John O'Connell (D-San Francisco) abandoned efforts to repeal California's controversial loyalty oath.

ASSEMBLYMAN JOHN L. E. Collier (R-Los Angeles) accused Ways and Means Chairman Jesse M. Unruh (D-Los Angeles) of having a "bully attitude" in ramrodding through the governor's beer tax bill.

Assemblyman Lester A. McMillan (D-Los Angeles) asked for an investigation of complaints about treatment of visitors to Hearst Ranch State Park at San Simeon. Governmental Organization Committee approved Governor Brown's bill creating an economic development agency.

41 BAND LETTERS AWARDED TO HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

A total of 41 band letters and 19 other awards have been presented to students at Palm Springs High School in the school's annual Band and Orchestra Awards Assembly.

Gustave Patzner, band director, announced the awards which included recognition for pom pom girls, flag bearers, majorettes and service awards for band officers.

THE BAND letters, awarded for two semesters or more of service with band (plus C averages and playing all band engagements), were given out for years of band service. The letters went to:

Fourth Year: James Copland, Joe Lewis, Dennis McNamara, Cynthia Rojo and Pat Barbara.

Third Year: Julie Lance and Ben Rose.

Second Year: George Gallenard, Jay Harvey, Robert Jones, Judy Kliebe, Stanley Komura, Susan Larrieu, Eva Mediano, Marian O'Halleron, Lee Palmer, Argen

Pom Pom awards were to Ann Daniel, Carla Black, Jan Dristler, Donie Ellison, Diane Dewitt, Maria Marmalejo and Phyllis Smilen. Majorettes receiving recognition were Pat Hayhurst, chief majorette, Gretchen Stainbrook, Patty Patzner, Barbara Bynum and Linda Gable.

FLAG BEARERS accorded awards were Jon Stainbrook and Rollin Levin.

Band officers given service pins were Tamara Smith, band secretary; Gary Yarus, band manager, and Terry Hunt, Stanley Komura and Jay Harvey, librarians. Still to be awarded, Patzner said, are two service awards for out-

CVAPC to Hold Final Meeting

Final meeting until next fall will be held Monday night by the Coachella Valley Advisory Planning Committee at 7 p. m. at the Shadow Mountain Club. A meeting of the board of directors is scheduled at 6 p. m. Secretary Richard B. Kite said that "many problems have arisen since our last meeting, and these will be discussed. It is important that we have 100 per cent attendance."

Two Gambling Suspects Enter Not Guilty Pleas

Two Palm Springs residents, Bill Pettit and George Randy, arrested April 30 in a county-wide bookmaking crackdown, entered pleas of not guilty in Superior Court in Indio yesterday.

Judge Hilton McCabe set a jury trial for July 27 at 9:30 in Department four in Indio.

A third man, Edward Breeze of Cathedral City, who was arrested at the same time, had his hearing continued until May 26.

Some 25 men were arrested on bookmaking charges throughout the county at the end of April, in combined raids by the Riverside County Sheriff's Office, Riverside Police Department, Palm Springs police, District Attorney's office, and investigators of the California State Alcoholic Beverage Control Board.

The action was taken on indictments issued by the Riverside County Grand Jury.

The two apartment dwellings—one four-unit building, the other three units—are valued at $35,000 and $25,000 respectively. The Cevon firm is building the apartments for the construction company's owner, G. W. Von Fleckenstein.

The developments will be built on Catalpa, Deodar and Azteca streets and on Club Circle Drive.

Other officers named include Clifford Young, vice president; Mrs. Howard Benninghoff, secretary; Mrs. Tom Brown, treasurer; Mrs. Nina Shumway, Stanley Savley and Tom Cook, directors.

Mrs. Kathryn Gordon, outgoing president, expressed her appreciation for assistance this year. An effort is being made to put together a show for presentation this summer, in the nature of last year's Follies. It also is hoped to have a play ready to present in the early fall season.

a plan for community rejuvenation similar to the one that had restored Pittsburgh, Pa.

"What we wanted to form was a sort of sounding board for long-range planning views," Slaughter said. "I don't know if we'll be able to with the environment this other report has created."

COUNCIL MEMBERS appeared irritated at the report but most pooh-poohed the effectiveness "of any pressure group with preconceived notions."

"We'd like to listen to them," offered Mayor Frank Bogert. "But frankly we're not going to give them any more notice than a group, like, say, the Home Owners League."

Council member Mary Carlin said that she'd treat the new group—which has been given the title of the Palm Springs Round Table—like any other organization.

"But groups seeking special privileges usually get rough treatment from me."

TWO OTHER MEMBERS of the council shared the Bogert-Carlin view with one of them, Councilman John Wood, opining that he'd like to hear the criticisms of the council.

"If anyone really wants to play vigilante," he added, "they ought to run for the council and do the job from the council chamber."

New Soprano, Veteran Baritone to Be Soloists 'Requiem' Set for Tuesday

A new soprano and a veteran baritone have been assigned solo roles in the presentation of Johannes Brahms' "Requiem" by the chorus and orchestra of the Palm Springs Music Society at 8:15 p.m., Tuesday, in Indio's Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints.

Famed baritone Merwyn Dant will be joined by Village soprano Claudia Miller in featured portions of the work by the German master.

DANT, MUCH-SOUGHT for his oratorio prowess, has sung under the direction of such giants as Leopold Stokowski and Otto Klemperer and is soloist for Los Angeles' First Congregational Church. Described by San Francisco Chronicle critic Alfred Frankenstein as an "exacting musician... with a buoyant personality and a keenly-developed dramatic sense," Dant has been a frequent performer with the Music Society here.

"He needs no introduction to desert area music lovers," declared Harry Tomlinson, director of the Music Society.

YOUNG CLAUDIA MILLER, a senior at Coachella Valley Union High School, has been under Tomlinson's tutelage for the past two years and has emerged this year as a vital voice in Music Society presentations.

The young soprano will continue her musical education at Brigham Young University, where she will matriculate this fall.

Only a relative youngster in soprano circles, the teen-aged soloist has demonstrated her abilities for Village audiences throughout the current season.

TO THIS PAIR of solo voices, Tomlinson's 40-voice chorus and his compact orchestra will be added for the Brahms work. The seven-section Requiem — often referred to as the "German Requiem" because of its breadth of conception—has been done many times by the Music Society. It is regarded as one of the greatest of all requiems and a high point in the composition of religious music.

CLAUDIA MILLER

The LDS Church in Indio is located at Bliss and Monroe avenues. Tickets for the event, which will benefit the church's building fund, may be obtained from Yates Music Co., the Palm Springs Music Society or at the church on the evening of the presentation.

Board Okehs DHS Dumpsite Purchase Plan

Approving a recommendation by Road Commissioner A. C. Keith, the Board of Supervisors decided this week to apply to the Bureau of Land Management for purchase of 200 acres east of Desert Hot Springs to be used partly as a public disposal site and partly as a source of gravel for road construction in the area.

Under a special land-use permit from the Bureau of Land Management the county now maintains 40 of the 200 acres as a disposal site. The permit expires Sept. 26, 1960. The additional 160 acres is sought to allow for the growth of the area.

The purchase price is to be based on an appraisal by the Bureau as to market value of the property. Keith said he believes the value to be approximately $25 per acre. This would make the purchase price $5,000.

Saund Claims He Like Visit From 'Tourists'

Spring has come to the nation's capitol, according to Congressman D. S. Saund, bringing with it a deluge of tourists.

The Congressman allowed as how that was fine with him since many of the visitors include Riverside and Imperial County citizens who stop in to talk over the mechanics of government and even get down to specifics.

Saund said that "Fishbait" Miller, who tends the door of the House of Representatives, reported that 3,000 to 4,000 visitors witness the activities of the House every working day.

"I only wish that California were a bit closer to Washington," Saund lamented. To figures if it were, he'd get a chance to talk to more Riverside-Imperial County constituents.

Elementary Students Plan Concert May 27

A total of 30 young instrumental musicians from sixth grade music classes in Palm Springs Unified School District elementary schools will present a concert at 7:30 p. m., Wednesday, May 27, in the Cielo Vista School auditorium.

The orchestra will be conducted by Richard Dahlgren, director of elementary music.

It will mark the first such elementary concert in the community's history, Dahlgren said. In addition to a programmed concert by the 30-member orchestra, solo and ensemble presentations by outstanding elementary students will also be heard. There will be no admission charge for the event.

Rech Named State Delegate

Robert Rech, member of the local Knights of Columbus, was elected one of eight delegates to represent the State of California at the Supreme Convention at St. Louis, at the state meeting in Santa Rosa.

Attending the state session as official delegates of the Palm Springs K of C were Grand Knight Richard Krings and Louis DeGrucio, and their wives.

Decision on Jefferson Subdivision Stall to June 1

Back to the planning commission for consideration of approval and of conditions to be imposed, went the subdivision map for Jefferson Street Estates following a continued hearing before the Board of Supervisors this week on the appeal by the subdivider of the commission's rejection.

John Moore Robinson, acting for developers of the property which is located on Jefferson between 38th and 40th northwest of Indio, told the supervisors that he again conferred with Lowell O. Weeks, general manager and chief engineer of the Coachella Valley County Water District.

"THEY WANT THE whole area protected by a series of public works," declared Robinson, "and they don't intend to voice approval of any subdivision there unless the public works are constructed."

Robinson signified willingness to put in curbs and gutters, routing the water flow along 38th.

Lloyd Loveland, owner of land immediately to the south of the subdivision site, said if possible he would like to see the flow converted to 38th and Jefferson, but added, "You shouldn't allow any subdivision in the area without proper flood protection."

COUNTY COUNSEL Ray T. Sullivan, Jr., observed that the subdivision law says that "land subject to flooding shall not be subdivided," and that is the reason the subdivision committee of the planning commission turned down the Jefferson Street Estates Map.

ROBINSON SAID there is a "sheet flow" over his particular location and that Weeks indicated that although he wouldn't give written approval, if proper drainage is provided by curbs and gutters there won't be any great objection.

In a new letter to the board, Weeks declared, "It may be possible that the subdivider and his engineer can work out some method of protecting this area by a system of dikes, water bearing streets, or by raising the floor elevation of the buildings above the maximum expected high water."

"ANY PROTECTION works provided should give careful consideration to concentration of flow onto lower areas and adequate maintenance should be provided. This district feels the best protection for floods for this area would be a plan to protect the entire

Dear Abby... by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: I have a friend who visits me constantly and calls me on the phone every day. The only thing I have against her is the questions she asks about our finances. She asks the price of everything I have in my house. When I wear something new she asks how much I paid for it. She asked me what my husband's salary was, how much taxes we paid. Yes, Abby, she even inquired about how much my telephone bills and grocery bills are every month. I am fed up to the teeth with these questions. How can I put a stop to this without hurting her feelings?

DEAR FED: What feelings? The next financial question she tosses should not be answered. Give her a great big beautiful smile (and show all those teeth you are fed up to) and tell her sweetly, "It's none of your business, Dearie."

DEAR ABBY: I have a great problem on my hands. I am a boy of 17 and I smoke. However, my parents do not know it. My Dad smokes, and when I hint I would like to smoke he says it is bad for me and he'd never allow it. I have tried to quit, but I can't. To be honest, I enjoy smoking. I would like for some smoking man to give me some good reasons why I should quit. YOUNG SMOKER

DEAR YOUNG: I am a non-smoking man (am not even a smoking woman) but I CAN tell you that it is expensive, and it can't do your health any good. Can a "smoking man" give this boy any better reasons?

DEAR ABBY: Do you think it is every wife's duty to get up in the morning and fix her husband's breakfast? My husband gets up at 5:30 every morning and it's awfully hard for me to get up that early as I have three children and the oldest is four. My husband says I don't have to get up to fix him breakfast but I think

Curbs on Public Camping Grounds in Forest Area Set

Regulations as to length of time campers may stay at public camping grounds located upon national forest lands of the San Bernardino National Forest, were announced today by Donald R. Bauer, forest supervisor.

Involving of this regulation has been found necessary so that as many vacationers as possible be accommodated by national forest camp grounds, Bauer said. In 1958 more than 222,000 campers made use of the 42 camp grounds on the San Bernardino National Forest.

CERTAIN CAMP grounds or sections of camp grounds are limited to use by camping trailers only. Signs will be erected to indicate the restricted kind of use.

Notice of the following restrictions on campgrounds follow:

FOURTEEN DAYS — Applewhite, Cajon, Stockton Flat, Colebrook, Grout Bay, Hanna Flats, Pine Knot, Holcomb Valley, Horse Springs, Pipes Canyon, Siberia Creek, Round Valley, Deep Creek, Big Pine Flat, Mill Creek, Big Pines, Falls, Barton Flats, San Geronimo.

Ten Days — North Shore, Crest Park, Toll Road, Fisherman's Camp, Miller Canyon Camp, Miller Canyon Trailer Park, Mojave.

Seven Days — Council Camp and Camp Pow Wow.

BOSTON (UPI) — The discovery of a new family of chemical agents that make laboratory animals more cheerful was reported at the annual meeting of the American Chemical Society here. One of the agents, nialamide, overcame mental depression. The drug now is being tried on humans, but it's not available for general use yet.

The Desert Sun is an independent newspaper dedicated to truth, accuracy and impartiality in the news; to the progress of the desert region; to the support of that which it believes to be right and to the defeat of that which it believes to be wrong.

On Subdivisions Not in Public Interest Tinkering With County Ordinance

Continued development of the Desert Empire is almost entirely dependent upon the willingness and ability of investors to improve raw acreage and eventually subdivide larger pieces into smaller parcels for farms, homesites and commercial purposes in keeping with a sound and workable over all plan to meet the most desirable needs of the various localities.

All things considered, the desert region as a whole has enjoyed a substantial, well balanced, orderly, attractive and highly satisfactory growth in every respect under existing regulations and supervisory agency processes for a number of years, particularly during the past decade.

With the general development program progressing so well, the recent proposal of the County Planning Commission to adopt a new county-wide ordinance which would create drastic new subdivision restrictions and controls comes as a dubious act of questionable intent and consequences to may experienced persons who are actively engaged in development of the desert region.

It is contended, and verified by those who have met the already voluminous compliance requirements, that present subdivision laws are as strict and comprehensive as could be reasonably desired and that there is no justifiable grounds for further complicating terms and procedures.

Also, it is quite evident that the piling up of "mile high" restrictions, requirements and bureaucratic red tape will hamper, discourage and in the end severely affect all real estate development and growth in the desert area.

One thing is plain. The popular protest against the adoption of the proposed new County Subdivision Ordinance shows that it is not a creation of the people and introduced because of public demand. Rather it would seem to be a "child" fathered by the Planning Commission. Since that body is not elected by or responsible to the people, the vesting of such additional strong and sweeping new powers to it by self request is indeed suspect.

The Board of Supervisors has quite properly delayed adoption of the controversial ordinance pending a further hearing to be held July 27.

Every desert dweller has a stake in the outcome of that meeting because of the threat it presents to continued real estate development and sound, reasonable and steady progress.

The public interest should come first above the wishes of any of its political agencies or administrators at all times.

'You Gettin' That Unwanted Feeling Too?'

This Side of The Sun By Phat

Today we'll do a little swiping
And pass out praise
Instead of griping.

The swiping is from a column recently written by Maxwell Stiles, sports writer for the L.A. Mirror-News and the praise is for a desert reside, E. P. (Chink) Coleman, manager of Fireside Lodge, Palm Desert.

COLEMAN IS putting into practice what the late Grantland Rice preached, "it isn't that you won but how you played the game," which isn't an exact quotation but gets over the idea.

In other words, Coleman believes in sportsmanship.

Sixteen years ago Coleman had an idea, a Sportsmanship Hall of Fame.

Now his dream is coming true and Palm Desert will be the site of this Hall of Fame.

HIS HALL OF FAME differs from the others already established. They honor achievements, his honors outstanding exhibitions of sportsmanship.

Each year he presents a Sportsmanship trophy to those who, in the opinion of a board of 50 sportswriters, deserves it. The trophies are donated by another Palm Desert resident, Joe Gokey, of Freeport, Ill., and the desert.

COLEMAN'S AWARDS go to athletes like John Landy, the famed Aussie distance runner who sacrificed a chance to set a new record by stopping in the middle of a mile race to help a fallen opponent to his feet. Landy lost about 80 yards to the field but still won.

Coleman's Hall of Fame is replete with instances of good sportsmanship.

IN HIS Hall of Fame at Palm Desert Coleman hopes to have replicas of all of the famous trophies in the world such as the Ryder Cup, the Davis Cup, Curtis Cup, the Ashes, Harmsworth Trophy and others.

He believes these will be an inspiration to youth. Maxwell Stiles had this to say of the Palm Desert sportsman: "You have to like a man whose burning desire in life is to ferret out and honor the men and women who contribute to the scene acts of sportsmanship. I truly believe Coleman deserves one of his own trophies."

SINCE THIS piece has been devoted to sports so far, might as well go on. Palm Springs High did all right by itself in athletic endeavor this year. They were near the top in football and basketball, gave a good account of themselves in track and swimming and won three Riverside County League championships—boys and girls tennis and baseball.

That's three titles out of seven in an eight-sport league—not bad. Still swiping ideas—Frank McGinnis says: "To find out what your doctor recommends these days—watch television."

And O. A. Battista says that before some people start boasting of their family tree, they do a good pruning job.

STAN DELAPLANE'S Postcard

The literary life is exhausting, believe me. My publisher is in constant touch with me. Taking my temperature and fluffing up the pillows.

"Good news!" he cried yesterday on the long-distance phone. "You are going into Macy's window!"

"To pay off an election bet?" I asked. "To sell books," he said. "It is a wonderful opportunity."

LATER HE called back to say I had been canceled out of the window.

"They need it for refrigerators. But we have done even better. You are booked into the luggage department—everybody who buys a valise is exposed to your book."

WELL, DEAR hearts, this is the way it goes in the publishing dodge.

All the time I was authoring on this book, I got very little information from the publisher. Just an occasional bluebird whistle from New York.

Your letter regarding problems with Chapter 4 received and I sincerely wish we could offer you specific advice," he wrote. "However, years of experience have convinced us that the author is the best judge. And we have every confidence . . ."

SUBSEQUENT letters went unanswered. Then there was a little note:

"Have been up to my ears in detail. All of us back here are most enthusiastic and look forward to . . ."

A book author is fairly nervous. Like an expectant mother, he hardly knows what to expect. I even spent a little money on long-distance calls myself. It was worthwhile, I guess, because the voices came in clear as a bell.

"Of course," cried the secretary. "You're the clever person who wrote 'Bawds and Broad-swords.' A wonderful grasp of the Elizabethan period . . ."

"NO, MA'AM. I am the person who is writing his memoirs on snooker pool—'Eight Balls in the Side Pocket.'"

"Surely," she said. "How stupid of me. Mr. Fizz will be SO sorry to have missed your call. Would you like to speak to Mr. . . ."

"When the mannequins does not answer, they think they are being high-tailed and go away in a huff."

"Yes, sir," I said. "Sunny windows. No mannequins."

"That's the spirit," said Fizz heartily. I think so, too.

EARL WILSON:

He Showed L.B.

NEW YORK — Oscar winner David Niven and I met in a little 9th Av. restaurant called the Britany, which was once a hangout for French sailors but is now patronized by the autograph fans since New York became Hollywood-on-the-Hudson.

Niven spoke of how closely TV and Hollywood work today . . . of the peace between them. "I can remember," Niven said, "L.B. Mayer saying to me in his own home one day, 'If you persist in working for the enemy, you'll never work in my studio again!'" He paused in the act of sipping some red vin ordinaire, very good at the Britany.

"I replied to him, 'I haven't worked in your studio for eight years anyway, so I guess I had better go on working for the enemy.'"

Now TV and Hollywood seem equally happy about his successes in both fields. As for the slim-waisted, mustached, cosmopolitan Niven, he says:

"By and large, in the 25 years I've been working, I have always done the next thing offered me. I cannot bear not working."

Thus he is here on the un-chic West Side of Manhattan, striding past baby carriages on crowded sidewalks in a slum district as he goes to lunch from the 20th Century-Fox studios at 10th Av. and 5th St. He is shooting "Anniversary Waltz" with Mitzel Gaynor and Monique Van Vooren and he claims to be enjoying the rebirth of the motion-picture industry in New York.

"It's not the same as sitting at my home in the Hollywood Hills," he admits, "learning my lines out in my garden. 'Here I'm on a top floor of a skyscraper hotel, and when a jet whizzes by it seems so close that I find myself cringing in a corner of the bathroom, scared half to death.'"

Niven's own TV show — on which he is host or narrator — may put him almost anywhere . . . but he likes to associate himself with New York, particularly with the era starting right after Repeal, when he was a whisky salesman for Jack and Charlie's 21 Brands.

"My beat was Second Av.," he says. "A friend and I made the first delivery of legal whisky in New York after Repeal."

Niven, who says he used to come back smelling from selling, also recalls being an extra in the Jeanette MacDonald-Nelson Eddy classic, "Rosemarie."

"I was the lover who hid in the drawing room," he said. "Well, I took a girl friend to see the picture, and when it came time for me to say my lines on the screen, I said to the girl, 'That's me!'"

"But a perfectly strange head came out saying my lines. I was so terrible, they'd got somebody else to do the lines over after I'd left."

A quarter of a century whooshed past. A few weeks ago, Niven and Tony Curtis and their wives shared a table at the Beverly Hilton Hotel. Niven having just won an Oscar for "Separate Tables."

"The evening was spoiled for me by Tony's embarrassment when people congratulated me and didn't know quite what to say to him. Tony made one funny remark, though."

"He said, 'Now would anybody like to hear my acceptance speech?'"

Niven revealed that one person knew in advance that he was an Oscar winner.

MIKE CONNOLLY:

'Silent' Battle

HOLLYWOOD — One of the biggest "silent" battles is going on behind the scenes of the TV portals — between the Loretta Young Show and Barbara Stanwyck Theatre. Their shows will be similar and since they'll both be on the same night, they'll be slugging it out for the title, "Sunday Night Queen of TV."

Loretta Young is hanging on to her 10 p.m. roost as in former years while Barbara Stanwyck will be very satisfied with an 8.30 slot, sandwiched in between Steve Allen and Dinah Shore—who could ask for anything more!

Loretta will have her following and Barbara will have to build hers but with the best help any newcomer to TV has ever had. It should prove mighty interesting!

JACKIE COOPER, who has been in show business almost all of his 37 years, plans to retire when he's 40. His new "Hennessy" series is sold for 32 segments as a starter, and the dough is rolling in from the re-runs of "The Peoples Choice" so he's gonna retire! Wanna bet!

Frank Sinatra's house was the setting for the other night for Peter Lawford's surprise birthday party for his wife Pat (Kennedy) Lawford sang the parody, "The Girl That I Married"—"It's said but true, has more—money than Desilu." And if John Kennedy becomes President, asked songwriter Sammy Cahn, "Will Sinatra be our Ambassador to Italy?" Senator Kennedy wound up his Los Angeles stay at Pucini's co-owned by his brother-in-law Lawford and Frank Sinatra.

LAWRENCE WELK turned down Serutan as a sponsor of his Wednesday night ABC-TV hour. Sponsors don't inhibit Mr. Welk. The next day, Mrs. Lawrence Fisher, wife of the Fisher Body Co. president, lunched Larry in Detroit—Welk's a Chrysler products man, but she's a fan.

A thief swiped three "Richard Diamond" scripts from Dave Janssen's T-Bird, left a note: "I've never stole anything in my life before, but I'm studying to be a TV scripter." Well, that's a good start.

Rosemary Clooney had eye trouble, bowed out of rehearsals with Bob Hope but did return to tape that last sketch with Rapid Robert. Rosie's problem is not a clot like Bob's but a constricted blood vessel.

JACK BENNY and George Burns were given a peek at Club Harvard's special one-way glass where they observed Burns' brother, Willie, rambling with a $100 stake given him by Benny and Burns. Willie ran it up to a $1,000 and George quipped: "Wouldn't it be funny if we found him cheating?"

Sue Carson has been set by producer Jerry Wald for the role of the Bronx secretary in "The Best of Everything." Some $50,000 to $60,000 in TV and night club bookings over the next three months had to be cancelled to assure Miss Carson's availability!

Joseph Kautman has purchased rights to Steve Fisher's "Stopover" as a basis for both a TV series and a feature film. Diana Dors will star in the movie, but the series is scheduled first.

SOL SAKS, who has probably created more successful television comedy shows than any other writer in the business has this to say: "Actually there are no formulas. Father Knows Best, the Phil Silvers Show, the Danny Thomas Show, they're all different. The only key to freshness and success is working with talented people, meaning producers, directors, and performers. I'd rather start with creative people and no idea at all than with the best idea and mediocre people."

And we are all convulsed by an NBC-TV off-camera announcer on a "The Young Land" blurb when he said: "Following in the tradition of HER famous father, Pat Wayne makes HER bid for stardom—!"

One of our favorite actors, Darren McGavin, should get a French tutor if he continues to spout perfume-bottle French in his "Mike Hammer" series!

GLORIA GRAHAM is telling everyone you'll listen she's yearning to do a TV comedy role, which the movies never allowed her, and which was her forte on Broadway before she came to Hollywood nine years ago. Well, two comedy roles Gloria could have made funny and didn't were: her role as a Southern Belle in "The Bad and the Beautiful" and one of the comedy roles of all time—that of Ado Annie in "Oklahoma!"

Lloyd Bridges snapped a girder when his Cadillac with all his carefully tailored "Sea Hunt" skin-diving gear in the back seat was stolen. His producer, Ivan Tors, calmed Lloyd: "Don't worry! It's a great idea for an episode, and we'll have you diving after the thief in your shorts!"

Jacques Bergerac has been cast in "77 Sunset Strip" segment titled, "The End." The story concerns plane passengers wrecked on an island that is to be an H-bomb target in the South Pacific.

"I LIKE THIS NEW show called 'Peck's Bad Girl' because of its avoidance of the usual family-type corn and kiddie-type-savins. Patty McCormack's angelic visual qualities and fresh, unspoiled ebullience light the screen like a beacon. It's something different."

Red Skelton, a Rolls Royce driver, gave his Georgia one and had them labeled. His and Hers!

It used to be, "Who in it?" Now it's "Who's writing it?" The ad agencies are beginning to realize there arub ayostin ize there are only about a dozen writers who can command top salaries in TV. So unless the writer is definitely set for the series and NOT associated with any other TV show, the agencies lose interest but quick!

That backwoods Lucille Ball, by the name of Minnie Pearl, tests for a comedy series of her own this week with Roy Rogers turning producer like Desi Arnaz and George Burns backing the plot.

Why Federalia Keeps Growing

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Government grows bigger every year, and we should constantly ask — whodunnit? Congress gets most of the blame, and deserves a large share, but there are three other culprits—Labor, Business and the States.

Take Labor first, not because it is more guilty, but more newsworthy. The House of Representatives is beginning to consider the Senate-passed Kennedy-Ervin reform bill. If it becomes law, the bill would cause another bloating of the already bulbous bureaucracy.

THE K-E BILL CALLS for the creation of at least one new major post — Commissioner of Labor Reports at $17,500 a year—and possibly two or more, including an additional Assistant Attorney General for Labor Affairs. The mere reporting of Labor activities, as provided by the Senate bill, would cost close to $3 million a year to administer. I am told by top Federal authority.

We should ask—why is a Labor reform law, with its greater government participation, necessary? The answer is in the sky-high record of Labor abuses to be found in the McClellan committee hearings. The misbehavior of Labor unions, chiefly through their officers, made it necessary — or so Congress believes — to pass laws which require detailed reporting on union finances, elections, trusteeships, organizational procedures, conflict-of-interest surveillance and non-Communist affidavits.

THIS IS HOW Federal bureaucracy grows. But the same thing happens on the side of Business, and as the fault of Business. A previous Congress found it necessary to pass a law on Welfare-Pension plans, requiring disclosure. It was not, like the proposed Labor Law, one with steel-trap teeth in it. There was a large element of voluntarism in the language. So much so, as I have learned, that skilled corporation lawyers have advised their clients not to comply on the grounds that there is no penalty for non-compliance. As a result something like 100,000 firms whose government has asked them to fill out some forms and send in some information have declined to do so.

And the result? Next year, it is almost certain that the Secretary of Labor will advise the President to ask for a law with teeth. The Administration can make a good case for the necessity of a strong law, filled with intricate regulations. The Congress will very likely be impressed with the Administration's case. The probability is that we shall get another law, somewhat like the K-E bill, except that it will be aimed at Business. Here is another example of how and why the Federal government grows and grows.

ALTHOUGH LITTLE noticed by the general public, Labor Secretary Mitchell has been trying for several years to obtain voluntary compliance on reporting. It would make for much less paper work and better relationships. Failing voluntarism, Mitchell has tried to make the most of the disclosure principle—as distinct from regulation.

If Business and Labor were willing to disclose certain matters of public concern, there would be much less force to the arguments of the Welfare Staters who demand regulation. Once regulations are added, the next thing is inspection and soon the whole community is crawling with Federal agents.

BUSINESS AND Labor can do these things to hold down the growth of Government. The leaders in each field could begin right now to prevent the next session of Congress from passing expensive and bureaucracy-building laws.

The other non-Federal entities which could help to control the Federal growth are the 50 American States. There is certainly no need for uniformity in State laws. One strength and much of the delightfulness of the American Union is that there is a vast variety of local customs about drinking, fishing, gambling, marrying and — despite the Supreme Court — schooling in the separate States.

BUT THERE IS a distinction between uniformity and due attention to public problems. The workman's compensation principle, for example, is a half-century old. The theory is that a industrial worker will waive his right to sue for injury at work in return for a guarantee of just compensation for an injury.

But there are States, according to the position of the Labor Department, where the compensation is so low that an injured workman must go on public charity. When this happens the taxpayer, instead of the employer, is paying the bill.

Also, when this happens, the Welfare Staters besiege Congress and demand a new Federal law. Again, this is why the Government keeps growing.—Holmes Alexander.

Barry Holdsworth will be in charge of the Youth Fellowship program at 6:15.

THE REGULAR Choir Recognition service will be held at 7:30 p.m., with the Junior Choraleers and the High School Choir taking part. The High School Choir, with Alex Hammond as director, will sing "The King of Love My Shepherd Is," with Bonnie Blackstone, Doradeen Parker, Denny Hammond and Merle Moore as soloists. The offertory selection will be "Sweet the Moments."

The Junior Choraleers, with a membership of 75, will sing four numbers, "Saviour! Hear Us, We Pray," "Jesus Is a Wonderful Saviour," "Angry Words! O Let Them Never," and "The Master's Service." Members who have qualified will receive their first, second and third year pins.

Church Youth Enjoy Weekend

Twenty-three members of the First Baptist Church of Lakewood spent a weekend in Palm Springs as winners of a three-month attendance contest at their church.

The junior class (eleventh grade) of the high school department won the Palm Springs trip over three other grade groups.

Scene of the vacation trip was the Caliente Cottages in Indian Avenue and the trip was made possible through the cooperation of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Smith (he's the superintendent of the Senior High School group) and Mr. and Mrs. Meyer Gorrel of Caliente Cottages.

The Palm Springs Community Church invited the group to join in the local church activities Saturday and attend services on Sunday.

'Soul and Body' To Be Sermon Topic Sunday

The relationship of soul and body, subject of discussions by thinkers throughout the centuries, will be presented Sunday in all Christian Science churches.

The Golden Text of the Lesson-Sermon on "Soul and Body" is from Psalms (16:8): "I have set the Lord always before me; because he is at my right hand, I shall not be moved. Therefore my heart is glad, and my glory rejoiceth: my flesh also shall rest in hope."

As recounted in I Kings (8:27), Solomon humbly sought an answer to the location of Soul when he prayed, "But will God indeed dwell on the earth? behold, the heaven and heaven of heavens cannot contain thee; how much less this house that I have builded?"

Mary Baker Eddy asserts in the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," "Science reveals Spirit, Soul, as not in the body, and God as not in man but as reflected by man. The greater cannot be in the lesser. The belief that the greater can be in the lesser is an error that works ill. This is a leading point in the Science of Soul, that Principle is not in its idea" (p. 467).

YUCCA VALLEY—Preceptor Leola Glass will discuss "What Is the Pure Gold of Your Life?" when services are held at 10:45 a.m. Sunday, in the New City of Mentalphysics near here.

The services are based on a workable philosophy, according to Dr. Edwin J. Dingle, suited to modern thinking.

Visitors are invited to tour the grounds and inspect the new, unusually-designed buildings that rise above the grounds.

The New City of Mentalphysics is located between Yucca Valley and Joshua Tree.

Dr. Johnson To Be Speaker Until June 7

Dr. Barclay Johnson, administrator of education, Church of Religious Science, will speak three more Sundays for the Palm Springs Church, April 24, 31 and June 7. The subject of his lecture this week at the Village Theatre will be "How We Can Know God."

"In any congregation such as the one here in Palm Springs," said Dr. Johnson, "there must be many who feel that life would count more if they had a larger sense of the reality of God. We join our voices in the wistful words, 'O for a closer walk with God!'"

"All of us should have a warm, colorful and loving sense of the ever-presence of God in us and around us. Perhaps our sense of reality for spiritual things would deepen if we developed a more affirmative faith in our convictions and learned to suspect our doubts."

"Some of us reverse this process, to the detriment of our spiritual unfoldment. Our hours spent in meditation will help to keep the windows of our souls open up on God," the minister stated.

All are invited to these services, which commence at 11 o'clock following fifteen minutes of organ music of Con Maffie.

Desert Riders are supposed to arrive by horseback... and quite a few old faithfuls, like Roundup Boss Ed McCoubrey, Johnny Boyle, Tony Burke, Jimmy Cooper did... but there were more of the pedestrian type members in the crowd that showed up for the Moonlight Ride to the Relay Station... which closed the DR season... It couldn't have been a more perfect night... cool enough that western clothes were comfortable... warm enough that sweaters weren't really needed... The hospitality hour was hosted by the Roundup Boss... and Jack Boyer's chow satisfied appetites whetted by outdoor exercise and savory whiffs of meat broiling over charcoal... The moon came up on schedule and there was music.

Being the pedestrian type... we headed south on Palm Canyon Drive... past Cahulla Hills and Sunny Cove... to the Relay Station... which is off a dirt road... in a ring of doubtful cottonwood trees... that look like they haven't had enough rain these past few winters... Nobody seemed to be sure why the spot is called the Relay Station except that local historian Tony Burke... who says that about eight years ago... trippers used to go out there to join the pack train for the trip into the canyons...

The invitation said... "The balloon goes up at six o'clock"... but Jack Boyer and his chuckwagon crew had the tables up and food cooking... when we arrived and there never was any sign of a balloon...

We hadn't been there long however when Ed McCoubrey, Al Ziskin and Tony Burke came riding across the desert... and others began to arrive on horseback and by car...

In the crowd that lined up for broiled beefburgers, corn on the cob, salad, cherry pie and coffee... were Dr. and Mrs. Clarence Woodmansee and their guests... The Frank Bogert and Andrea Ullman (who borrowed a guitar and sang a song or two around the campfire later)... Auntie Pearl McManus and her guests Zeddie Bunker and George Air Force's Airman of the Month, Thomas Mulkairman 2c (Tommy must have had a dose of nostalgia when Johnny Boyle included "Beyond the Reef" in his campfire songs... Judy Howard, Mary and Ken Evans, Billee Moseley, Bill and Jacques Otto (she's been bitten by the golf bug... and is delighted to discover you can trade green stamps for golf clubs)... and their guests Millie and Bill Iverson... and Jo and Donald Woods...

Don starred at the Playhouse this winter... and the Woods now have a home here... and have already discovered the real Village atmosphere out on the desert with the Desert Riders... Cliff Campbell was there... and the Dolph Brenners and the Fred Bernhills... and Old Timer Will Dean who yielded to demand and sang during the campfire hour... "Down by the Old Mill Stream" with gestures...

The Clare Ballaghs, too... Pat Ladin, Roy and Laurie Cummins and their nephew Danny, Gene Wohlgenuth... Ethel and Jack Luccarelli... The Cummins have just purchased a Cessna Skyline and both are learning to fly... They will be going north with it soon to spend the summer at their home in Roseburg, Oregon... There were around 60 altogether...

ADINNER TWO SOME at Howard Manor the other evening were these two longtime friends, Mrs. William Eisenman, on left, and Mrs. Noble Banks.

Sigma Gamma Plans Ahead

Planning ahead for the coming year, Sigma Gamma Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi discussed a swimming party, card party, fashion show and picnic.

Jane Dillon conducted the business meeting when sorority members planned their social and service activities. Gift baskets at Christmas and Thanksgiving, and support of cancer research are among the philanthropic projects undertaken each year by the Sigma Gamma Chapter. Two social events of the summer are to be a swimming party and a picnic.

The ways and means committee will be in charge of a Fall Fashion Show and a card party in the spring. Both of these events give sorority members the opportunity to invite friends outside the organization to join them in the fun.

The home of Helen Goundry will be the scene of the welcoming desert party on June 9th for Tau Sigma and Chi Theta Chapters which have received their charters. The new Exemplar Chapter will also be honored that evening.

Diamond Head, Black Sands Beach and Haleakala Crater were among the pictures shown by the hostess, Marta Scott, all pictures of the Scott's Hawaiian vacation last summer. Everyone was ready to pack a bag and leave immediately to see the deep blue ocean, the lush green vegetation, and the flowers which were growing in such profusion in all the islands.

The hostess served cake and strawberries with cream to the guests who included Millie Herbert, Marie Ford, Helen Goundry, Marge Hayes, Eleanor Lenox, Eddie DeLong, Payne Pritchett, Amelia Irvine, Loleta Waller, Sally Givens.

Hank Aaron Heading for New Record

Braves Slugger May Wind Up As Top NL Batter

By FRED DOWN
United Press International

Hank Aaron, who always said he might hit .400 if he got off to a fast start, is hammerin' away at a fantastic clip that could rewrite the National League record book.

At his present pace, Aaron not only would become the first NL .400-hitter since Bill Terry in 1930 but also would set new league records of 307 hits, 65 doubles and 59 homers in addition to driving in 181 runs!

Impossible? Perhaps, but almost anything seems possible these days for Aaron who raised his average to .468 Friday night when he connected for four hits in the Milwaukee Braves' 10-5 rout of the Philadelphia Phillies. Aaron drove in three runs with a homer double and two singles and now has 66 hits, 14 doubles, 13 homers and 39 rbi's in 33 games!

AARON'S SLUGGING made it easy for Lew Burdette to become the major league's first seven-game winner of the season despite the fact that he was touched for 12 hits including a pinch homer by Gene Freese. Freese's homer was his fourth as a pinch-hitter—two shy of his big league record for one season.

The Braves thereby hold a four-game lead over the Los Angeles Dodgers who beat the San Francisco Giants, 2-1, in a 13-inning marathon. The Pittsburgh Pirates beat the Cincinnati Reds, 4-3, and the St. Louis Cardinals scored a 3-1, 14-inning victory over the Chicago Cubs in the other National League games.

THERE WAS MORE WOE for those faltering world champion New York Yankees in American League action when Hoyt Wilhelm pitched a one-hitter against them for a 5-0 Baltimore Orioles victory and the Cleveland Indians retained their half-game first-place lead with a 1-0 decision over the Detroit Tigers. The Chicago White Sox beat the Kansas City Athletics 2-1, and the Boston Red Sox shamed the Washington Senators, 4-3.

Aaron hit a two-run homer in the first inning, singled home another run in the second and added a double and single in the fourth and eighth innings to lead Milwaukee's 16-hit attack. Robin Roberts was knocked in 2 2/3 innings and suffered his third setback. The Milwaukee musclemen blasted out six doubles and a triple in addition to Aaron's personal outburst giving them 28 total bases against four Philadelphia pitchers.

DON DRYSDALE WENT the full 13 innings for the Dodgers and gained his fourth victory when Gil Hodges singled home the decisive run against Al Worthington. The Dodgers scored an unearned run in the sixth and the Giants tied the score in the ninth when Willie Kirkland singled and Orlando Cepeda tripled. Johnny Antonelli went the first 11 innings for San Francisco.

BRIGADIER GENERAL F. I. Fenton, USMC (Ret.), hurls pitch that officially dedicated the Twentynine Palms Marine Base ball diamond to the memory of his son, Mike Fenton, who died on Okinawa during World War II. Waiting for the pitch are Lt. Col. F. I. Fenton, Jr., brother of the martyred Marine, at bat; Brig. Gen. A. L. Bowser, commanding general of the Twentynine Palms base, at catcher, and Maj. Gen. E. W. Snedecker, commanding general of the First Marine Division, an umpire. (Official USMC Photo).

MIKE FENTON'S MEMORY LIVES ON

29 Palms Dedicates Diamond to War Hero

By CPL. G. C. WELCH, USMC

TWENTYNINE PALMS—Mike Fenton swapped his battered ball glove for a shiny M-1 rifle during World War II and gave up his life—on Okinawa in May of 1945—in a "game" that his country eventually won.

Mike's dead—but not his memory.

For the thousands of Little League baseballers who will run and throw, hit and slide on the beautifully-grassed Marine Corps Base baseball field, Mike will be a living symbol.

The ballpark is called Mike Fenton Field.

DEDICATION of the field, accomplished on Armed Forces Day last week, saw the father of the Marine hero throw a pitch to Mike's brother while the commanding general of the First Marine Division played umpire.

That was as it should be. Mike's dad is Brig. Gen. F. I. Fenton, USMC (Ret.), and his brother is Lt. Col. F. I. Fenton, Jr., USMC. The General's wife was also on hand for the ceremonies.

THEY RECALLED how Mike used to come home for supper—exhausted—after an afternoon of ball playing.

"He used to go to sleep at night with his ball glove tucked under his pillow," Mike's brother recalled.

General A. L. Bowser, commanding general of the Twentynine Palms installation, officially dedicated the field in the name of Mike Fenton. On hand to assist were Major Gen. E. W. Snedecker, commanding general of the First Marine Division, and his aide, Brig. Gen. H. C. Tschirgi.

THE GRASS cushioned infield, the well-tended outfield, the official Little League specifications to the letter.

Dodgers Edge Giants 2 to 1 In 13 Innings

Drysdale Gives Up Only Six Hits In Marathon Game

LOS ANGELES, (UP) — Sam Jones 3-5 will attempt to dispel an early season Los Angeles Dodger hex over the San Francisco Giants tonight.

The Dodgers squeezed by the Giants, 2-1, Friday night on the strength of some brilliant pitching by Don Drysdale and a Bill Rigney hunch that backfired.

It was the Dodgers' sixth win in eight starts against San Francisco this season and it equalled the total number of Los Angeles victories over the Giants throughout the entire 1958 season.

DRYSDALE GAVE UP only six hits in 13 innings Friday night as he registered his fourth victory of the campaign. It was his second over the Giants.

Johnny Antonelli, who gave up only four hits and nary an earned run, tossed 11 innings of superb ball but he was betrayed by an error by third baseman Eddie Bressoud.

Bressoud, who has been gathering cobwebs on the Giants' bench for the past three weeks, was a surprise starter. Rigney decided to bench regular third sacker Jim Davenport because the slick fielding Jim has trouble getting a loud foul off Drysdale.

APPARENTLY RUSTY, Bressoud, one that gave the Dodgers a tally in the sixth inning. The Dodgers held that lead until the ninth when Willie Kirkland singled and scored on a tremendous triple by Orlando Cepeda.

In the 13th, Gil Hodges singled home Don Demeter, who had gotten on when he was hit by a pitched ball to wrap up the game. Al Worthington, who came on in the 12th inning, was charged with the defeat.

Whale's Heart Studied

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — A 250-pound whale heart is being studied by Dr. Raymond Truex, professor of anatomy at Hahnemann Medical College. He hopes to learn how the heart works, why whales are anemic and whether ambergris, the inflammable substance found in a whale's alimentary canal and valued for perfume, is actually a form of whale cancer.

Atoms are so small that two billion of them would fit on the point of a pin.
